To Summarize

- ❑ Ma Bu Tou, 1/5000000 in China, is just as common as any other village in this wide, ancient, and beautiful country.
- ❑ Each individual village has its specific geographical environments, local customs & practices, and historical transitions.
- ❑ I love Ma Bu Tou, and I'm convinced that such kind of love is rooted deeply in the DNA of anybody who has a land to be born in, to live on, and to interact with throughout his/her life.
